

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

• Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Let's put together some recipes!

Learning Outcome

Describe complicated or unusual events in the past through a wider range of B1 language in both work and social contexts.

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about food and how to prepare it.
- I can explain my opinion.
- I can ask for clarifications.

Ask your partner:

- Where does your mother or grandmother or aunt keep their treasured recipes?
- How often do they give them out to people?

Let's Explore!

Sally is dying of starvation!

* North Americans often use hyperbole or exaggerated statements like "dying of starvation". They shouldn't be taken literally.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Vanessa: I think that you've really got on to a great idea Sal.
- Sally: Do you mean what I said about the booklets?
- Vanessa: Yeah. I'm certain people would want to go through what we made and how we made it. I feel that they would really get into it. They should look professional.
- Sally: Are you asking me if I know someone who can print them up?
- Vanessa: Are you saying that you might know someone?
- Sally: I'm pretty sure that I could find someone to get on it.
- Vanessa: You could get it started?
- Sally: I don't see why not. I think we may really get into a new area with this.
- Vanessa: I'm not sure what you mean.
- Sally: I just see things starting to happen.
- Vanessa: Hmm.
- Sally: Now back to toss the salad gently.
- Vanessa: No it was wash the rice gently.
- Sally: How do you toast those seeds and nuts?
- Vanessa: Just mix them with a tiny bit of oil, spread them on a pan and bake them in the oven.
- Sally: That looks easy enough.
- Vanessa: Don't you think it's about time to get down to some serious eating?
- Sally: Do you mean you're finally going to feed me? I'm dying of starvation over here!

Let's Practice!

Vanessa repeats some instructions. What are they?

Instructions: Draw a line to match the sentences in Column A and Column B.

COLUMN A

1. Toss
2. Toast
3. Wash
4. Spread
5. Mix

COLUMN B

- a. them with a bit of oil.
- b. the nuts on a pan.
- c. the rice gently.
- d. the seeds and nuts.
- e. the salad gently.

Let's Practice!

Sally has many questions.

Instructions: Circle the correct word to complete the sentence.

1. Do you know (when / who / why) she could get it started?
2. Do you mean (what / why / how) I said about the booklets?
3. (Are / Is / Do) you saying that you might know someone?
4. Are you asking me (if / who / for) I know someone who could print them up?
5. Do you know (are / is / where) I could toss the salad?

Extension Activity

What is your favorite traditional food?

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- You will teach your foreign friends how to make a traditional dish from your country.
- With a partner, decide which dish you'd like to teach.
- Make a list of ingredients needed.
- Make a recipe explaining how to cook your dish in your own words.
- Then, just like a cooking show, video record yourself in a kitchen making the dish while you explain the process.
- Post your video online so you can share it with your classmates.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I teach people about traditional food.

☐ ☐

I analyze information and make it easy to understand.

☐ ☐

I present my recipe in a clear and concise manner.

☐ ☐

I give feedback to others.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- to get on to (verb): to begin to talk about a new subject
e.g. I think that you really got on to a great idea Sal.
- to get on (verb): to start
e.g. I'm pretty sure that I could find someone to get on it.
- to get into (verb): to find interesting
e.g. I feel that they would really get into it.
- to get into (verb): to become involved in e.g. I think we may really get into a new area with this.
- to go through (verb): to read
e.g. I'm certain people would want to go through what we made.
- to toss (verb): to mix food lightly so as to cover with dressing e.g. Now toss the salad gently.
- to get down to (verb): to start
e.g. Don't you think it's about time to get down to some serious eating?

Learning Points

Expressing Opinions

When you express an opinion, you give your ideas on a topic. You can use some inseparable phrasal verbs when you give opinions.

Some phrases we use to give opinions are :

I don't think ..., I'm certain ..., I believe ..., It's quite obvious ..., and I'm pretty sure ...

You use phrasal verbs when you want to be less formal. They are very common in spoken English.

Phrasal Verb	Meaning
get into	begin
get into	be interested in
get on	make progress toward
get on	start
get through	read
get down to	start; focus on

Examples:

- I think that you really got on to a great idea Sal.
- I feel that they would really get into it
- I'm certain people would want to go through what we made and how we made it.
- I'm pretty sure that I could find someone to get on it.
- I think we may really get into a new area with this.
- Don't you think it's about time to get down to some serious eating?

Asking for Clarification

You ask for clarification when you want more details on what the other person is talking about.

You ask for clarification when it is not clear what the other person is referring to. You ask the other person to be more specific by giving you more information.

You can use a question at the beginning of a statement or question to ask for clarification like: Don't you think it sounds a bit too intense?

Learning Points

Questions within sentences are called embedded questions.

Example:

Simple question: What are you going to do after dinner?

Embedded question: Do you know what you're going to do after dinner?

Look at the chart below for an explanation on how to make embedded questions.

Main Question	Embedded Question
Do you know ...	what/where/when/who/ ... ?
Do you remember ...	what/where/when/who/ ... ?
Can you tell me ...	what/where/when/who/ ... ?
Could you tell me ...	what/where/when/who/ ... ?

You can also use a direct question.

Example:

Is that a hint?

Direct questions go straight to the point. Sometimes they are used to be light-hearted or to be funny.

Peter: I'm really hungry now!

Sally: You mean there are times when you're not?

Examples:

- Do you mean what I said about the booklets?
- Are you asking me if I know someone who could print them up?
- Are you saying that you might know someone?
- I'm not sure what you mean.

